Details

The place where the project/workcamp will take place: Toronto

---

Description of the partner organizing/hosting the project:

The Canada Service Corps initiative was launched in January 2018 by the Government of Canada to give Canadian youth the opportunity to serve, while learning valuable skills and gaining experience. The initiative is carried by a coalition of national partners, including Chantiers jeunesse, and all members are testing new ways to engage and inspire young Canadians to serve their communities.

Description of work:

This initiative is advancing the Prime Minister's vision to create a culture of service, civic engagement and inclusion where young Canadians are mobilized to serve their country, impact others positively and experience personal growth. The objectives of the #LeadersToday Global Youth Service Summit are to:

Engage youth in a discussion on youth service to help to design the national program

Identify best practices and lessons learned in developing and delivering youth service initiatives around the world.

Explore opportunities for enhanced collaboration between youth service programs civil society networks, foundations, and the private sector.

The tasks of the participant during the summit are :

- Attend conferences

- Participate proactively in workshops
  - Share your personal volunteering experiences
  - Give an insight into your country's national public service policies and its ways to promote it
  - Help identify barriers and incentives for service.
